

ADVISORY

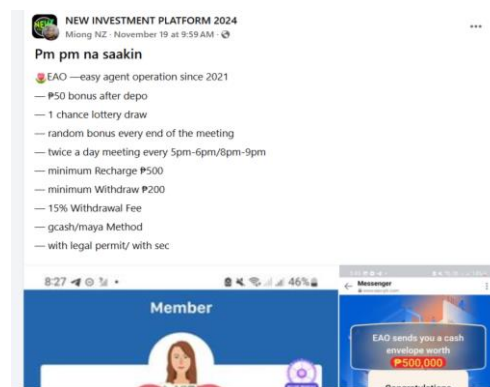

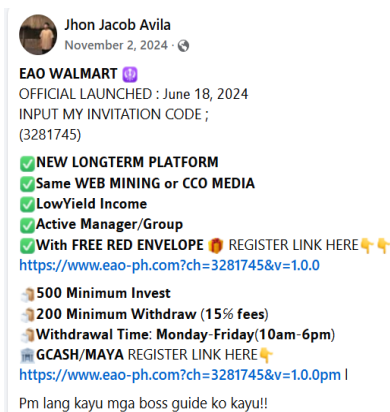

This is to inform the public that EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART is NOT AUTHORIZED TO SOLICIT INVESTMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC.

The alarming rise of Job Offer Scams under the pretense of a Tasking and Recharging modus in the country prompted the SEC through the Enforcement and Investor Protection Department (EIPD) to investigate, act on complaints received and thereafter issue an Advisory against EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART.

Its promoters claim that EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART is a safe and reliable long-term platform wherein people especially those who are at home can make money on a part-time work basis.

Under the EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART platform an interested person prior to joining, must first register in the link <https://www.eao-ph.com?ch=3281745&v=1.0.0pm> (link is no longer accessible). After the sign-in, the recruit is instructed to accomplish the tasks in each level as indicated in his board. In between tasks, he is required to deposit (recharge) money for him to collect his earnings. In his initial deposit, he automatically receives a Php 50.00 bonus. The minimum investment (recharge/deposit) is Php 500.00. The minimum withdrawal for each accomplished level is Php 200.00 with 15% withdrawal fee. Recharge (payment of investment) is done through Gcash or Maya.

At first glance, it would seem that EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART was actually offering a legitimate part-time job on a work from home basis. But in reality, there is no part-time job at all. After the recruit has completed the sign-in (registration), all he needs to do is watch a video or a video song in its entirety, click the “finish or done” button and the task for level one is already done.” In between levels, the recruit is required to recharge (invest money) so that he can allegedly withdraw his earlier earnings.

The most common indicators of a job offer scam are the following: (1) Offering part-time jobs through unsolicited messages or invitation in social media sites; (2) promise of high returns in exchange of numerous tasks; (3) job offers are made attractive by convincing the investor of flexible working conditions; (4) Investor is required to join a group chat, usually through Viber, WhatsApp, Messenger and Telegram messaging applications; and (5) Prior to withdrawal of investment or commencement of a new task, the investor is required to pay a fee or recharge (invest money).

As stated above, EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART draws public attention through unsolicited messages in messaging platforms or invitation of job opportunities through Facebook. Commensurate to the work offered by EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART is the promise of high monetary return “that is too good to be true”. EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART assures its member of no risk of losing money but instead guarantees high return of investment without exerting much time, least effort or no effort at all from the member himself. Simply watch a video, once you are done, you earn money. The member is also promised not to work under pressure considering that he need not work on an eight-hour work arrangement. He is also obliged to join a group chat for the group’s regular weekly meeting. This group chat serves as venue for the announcement of supposed bonuses to be received. And lastly, after the tasks are completed, the recruit is obliged to recharge or invest money before he could withdraw his earnings.

However, the recruit is not able to withdraw his earnings but is tricked into paying more money as a condition for release of earnings, which never happens, until the recruit realizes that he has been scammed or duped. It is only at the beginning of the scheme that the recruit is allowed to withdraw earnings from small initial investments to trick them into believing that the scam is legit.

The above described modus used by these scammers are pseudo “JOB SCAMS or TASKING” & “RECHARGING SCAMS” with supposed investment in an enterprise where the recruit is made to believe he has been recruited to join and perform menial tasks which require him to make an investment before they can perform the task and earn.

The investment commonly used to entice recruits is in the form of an “investment contract” which exists when there is an investment or placement of money in a common enterprise with a reasonable expectation of profits to be derived from the efforts of others which is prominent in the scheme of EASY AGENT OPERATION/EAO WALMART together with its TASKING & RECHARGING SCAM.

The Securities Regulation Code (SRC) requires that offer and/or sale of securities must be duly registered with the Commission and that the concerned entity and/or its agents should have the appropriate registration and/or license to sell such securities to the public.

Moreover, the Financial Products and Services Consumer Protection Act prohibits the commission of “Investment fraud”, defined as any form of deceptive solicitation of investments from the public which includes Ponzi schemes and such other schemes involving the promise or offer of profits or returns sourced from the investments or contributions made by the investors themselves and the offering or selling of investment schemes to the public without a license or permit from the SEC.
