

PUBLIC ADVISORY

ON THE UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE CORPORATE NAME OF CARMEN CREDIT 888 CORPORATION

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) warns the public against individuals and entities falsely representing themselves as affiliated with CARMEN CREDIT 888 CORPORATION, a company duly registered with the Commission.

Reports received by the Commission indicate that these unscrupulous actors are using the Company's name to deceive the public through the use of fake logos, fraudulent social media accounts, unauthorized websites, and online lending platforms that are not authorized or recorded with the Commission.

These schemes typically involve advance-fee loan arrangements, wherein victims are required to pay upfront fees prior to the release of a purported loan.

The public is hereby informed that these individuals and entities are NOT authorized, affiliated with, or connected to CARMEN CREDIT 888 CORPORATION. The Company has likewise informed the Commission that it does not require advance payments prior to the release of loans.

In view thereof, the public is strongly advised to exercise caution and to refrain from sending money, fees, or personal information to unverified persons or entities offering loan products online.

To ensure that you are transacting with the legitimate company, the public may verify its official contact details, as reported to the Commission:
