

PUBLIC ADVISORY

ON THE UNAUTHORIZED USE OF THE CORPORATE IDENTITY OF CASH-EXPRESS PHILIPPINES FINANCING INC. BY A CERTAIN FACEBOOK PAGE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) warns the public against a Facebook page operating under the name "Cash-express Philippines", accessible through the following link: <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61589519961229&sk=map>

The said Facebook page has been reported to the Commission for allegedly using, without authority, the corporate name, business identity, SEC registration details, and other identifying information of CASH-EXPRESS PHILIPPINES FINANCING INC. ("Cash-Express") to create the false impression that it is affiliated with, or operated by, the Company.

Cash-Express has formally informed the Commission that it does not own, operate, manage, authorize, sponsor, endorse, or maintain any affiliation whatsoever with the foregoing Facebook page.

EXAMPLES OF THE REPORTED FACEBOOK PAGE

The foregoing screenshots pertain to the reported Facebook page which, according to the representations made by Cash-Express and the documents submitted to the Commission, is neither owned, operated, nor authorized by the Company.

The Commission reminds the public that fraudsters frequently imitate the names, logos, SEC registration information, business addresses, and other identifying details of legitimate financing or lending companies to deceive consumers into believing they are dealing with duly licensed financial institutions.

Based on the records of the Commission, CASH-EXPRESS PHILIPPINES FINANCING INC. is a duly licensed financing company. However, the above-mentioned Facebook page is not among the online lending platforms or official social media channels disclosed to and recorded with the Commission under the Company's name.

According to the Company's submission, Cash-Express maintains only the following official Facebook pages:

1. Cash-express Philippines -

<https://www.facebook.com/cashexpressphilippines>

2. Cash-express.ph -

<https://www.facebook.com/cashexpressph>

Accordingly, the public is strongly advised NOT to:

- Transact with the said above-mentioned fake Facebook page
- Submit personal, financial, or sensitive personal information through the said platform or website;
- Upload government-issued identification cards, photographs, banking credentials, e-wallet information, contact lists, or other personal data; or
- Pay any processing fee, service fee, advance fee, verification fee, insurance fee, or similar charge in connection with a purported loan application.

The public is reminded that unauthorized online lending platforms and fraudulent websites may expose consumers to identity theft, financial fraud, unauthorized collection of personal information, privacy violations, and other forms of online abuse.

Persons who may have been contacted by, transacted with, or provided information to the subject platform or website are encouraged to immediately report the matter to the SEC and, where appropriate, to the Philippine National Police Anti-Cybercrime Group (PNP-ACG), National Bureau of Investigation Cybercrime Division (NBI-CCD), and National Privacy Commission (NPC).

To verify whether a financing company, lending company, or online lending platform is duly authorized or recorded with the Commission, the public may visit the SEC website and use the SEC Check App.

The Commission remains committed to protecting financial consumers and will continue to coordinate with the appropriate government agencies and platform providers in addressing unauthorized, deceptive, and potential fraudulent online lending activities.
