2024

IloEO

JAY P. GADONG

FROM SEEDS TO LIFE

Meet our nominated Plantito! With a green hand and a heart full of dedication, he's more than just a Plantito—he's a champion of sustainability. From planting to enjoying the fruits of his labor, his efforts feed our community and nurture the environment.

OGA

MARILYN BREDES

A Blooming Oasis: The Garden at the Heart of OGA

Ms. Marilyn repots the plants which have grown from the previous year GAD's activity. She greets the plants every morning which is the secret for it to grow and multiply.

CGFD

MARIANE THERESA
SALLES

MONSTER-A!

A lover of Monstera plants and related species, variegated or not. She even once wanted to propagate my Manjula!

CGFD

MARY VIVIEN VERANO

Plantita since Ortigas Days

Meet my officemate sitting next to me and some of her beloved plants. Her green thumb sometimes extends to my desk, as she often waters my plants too!

BagEO

HELEN VERYAN VALDEZ

Plant LaVeryan !!!

Many plantitas at the Baguio EO but her plant babies prove to be the lushest ones. Our plants at the office are mostly donations from her collection. Now, she lives in a farm :) and has more chances of growing more greens at her fab home in Benguet!

ICTD

MA. JOSEFINA PAQUIZ

Plantsman: As Starter

Every garden is a story waiting to be told. As a beginner, plant one at time and to see how the plant grow and become a beautiful garden.

CRMD

MA. LAURELA CASTANEDA

CRMD's Geourgeous Mommy Plantita

She took diligent care of every plants in our division (FAAD). Every morning, she visits and monitors her plants as well as the plants in the Office of the Director to check its growth and its usual need for water and sunlight."

CGFD

LOVERLOU CADUNGOG

Love and her Plants

Meet another one of my officemates sitting behind me. To give background, she adopted those plants from flower bouquets, giveaways, etc.

ICTD

ARCHIVAL NAVARRO

A Green Mind is Clean Mind

Ironically, this may not mean the same to everyone, but it does to a plantito like AD Navarro. His passion for plants began as a gift and now brings a calming ambiance to his workplace. Despite hectic schedules and upset clients, he remains composed and always on the go.

ICTD

ISMA GONZALES

Inhale joy, exhale Greenery

My Office oasis: where plants meet productivity

CGFD

CGFD

JAN KRISTINE VERDON

"Let's Celebrate Nature in our Workplace"

Celebrating my commitment to creating a greener future through sustainable practices in our workplace.

CF

ROSE MARIE BARIL

PlanTita Marie

She's CF's resident diva, tita, and plantita.

Rose Marie Baril is the epitome of what it means to be a certified plantita: she boasts a collection of over 33 plants in the office alone, diligently caring for each one every day.

CGFD

MARA LOUISE RUIZ

Now a qualified Plantita

Our newest workplace plantita, who recently adopted two plants and surprisingly managed to keep them alive and thriving.

CGFD

DENNISE SANTOS

An office must have!

Everyone needs a cute workplace plant that stands by you through tight deadlines, internet connection crises, and printer malfunctions. Just water it.

TarEO

JAY TORRES

Where every leaf tells a story of growth and beauty.

Sir Jay Torres started his green patch during the pandemic. Now this little forest is a reminder that where plants thrive, life thrives.

FMD

MA. ALISA JUMANGIT

Power Plants

You've heard knowledge is power, but what about plants giving you power- "Power Plants"? A kind of therapy with the help of plants! Alisa believes that while she waters them, the plants supply her with clean air, helping her live healthier. Plants contain power, more than we thought.

CGFD

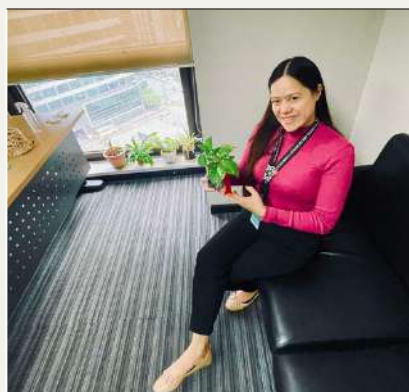

LAWRENCE CENSON

Business Plant

Rumor has it. This office plant is up for promotion and we are all rooting for it!
